

06 July 2015

2015 MURRAY-RIVERINA REGIONAL BUSINESS AWARDS ENTRIES NOW OPEN

Entries are now open for the 2015 NSW Business Chamber Murray-Riverina Regional Business Awards.

The business awards provide an exceptional opportunity to recognise the amazing businesses whose passion, determination, innovation and success inspire others within the region," said Ben Foley, Regional Manager of the Murray-Riverina NSW Business Chamber.

"Across 11 categories the NSW Business Chamber recognises excellence in business leadership, entrepreneurship, ethics, sustainability, innovation, export, business growth and employment practices," Mr Foley said

For more information visit www.businessannualawards.com.au

Entries open: Monday 06 July 2015

Entries close: Monday 10 August 2015

Winners announced and Gala Dinner:

Date: Friday 02 October 2015

Where: Albury Entertainment Centre

2014 Murray-Riverina Regional Business Awards Winners

Young Business Executive

Brad Carroll, McDonalds Leeton – Leeton
Megan Lawrence, GTES – Wagga Wagga

Young Entrepreneur

Gareth Mack, Macktronix – Thurgoona

Business Leader

Stephen O'Connell, Murray Conservatorium – Albury

Excellence in Innovation

Southern Cotton – Whitton

Excellence in Business Ethics

Griffith Post School Options Inc – Griffith

Excellence in Small Business

Sauce Communications Pty Ltd – Leeton

Employer of Choice

Crowe Horwath – Albury

Excellence in Business

Dayco – Wagga Wagga Grainlink – Leeton

Excellence in Work, Health and Safety

Norske Skog – Albury

Excellence in Export

Flavourtech – Griffith SunRice – Deniliquin

Local Chamber of Commerce

Albury Northside Chamber of Commerce

Excellence in Sustainability

De Bortoli Wines Pty Ltd - Bilbul

Both Norske Skog and De Bortoli Wines went on to win their respective categories at the State Business Awards in Sydney in late November 2014.

Media Contact: Ben Foley 0418 211 126

